

Innovative Governance Practices in the Higher Education Institutions in Iraq

Hi,

I'm Husam Al Zuwayny, Professor of Otolaryngology at Wasit University school of Medicine.

It will be my pleasure to share with you some notes about our experience with our project, where we are now a partner in one of the Capacity Building Higher Education CBHE programs. This project is coordinated by the University of Siena, Italy as (Coordinator). Wasit University with another nine Iraqi Universities and the Iraqi Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research, three universities from Portugal, Turkey, and Italy, in addition to UNIMED-Mediterranean Universities Union all are partners within this project.

Project Acronym: INSPIRE

Program: European Commission, Erasmus+, KA2 – Capacity Building in the Field of Higher Education

Aim of the project: is to support Higher Education Institutions in Iraq in order to make them capable of establishing a modern governance framework through the adoption of innovative practices.

Participation in such great programs which are sponsored by the European Commission is a promising opportunity to make a new experience, getting a huge network of scientific communications, and interesting advances in your institution's development.

Do not hesitate and apply for one of the Erasmus+ projects, to see you at the grantholder meeting soon.
